The United States Toward the end of 1943 Edward was assigned on board the well known aircraft carrier U.S.S. Franklin. The fateful story of the Franklin is one that is known throughout the world. This carrier was torpedoed once and then the terrible massacre of the Franklin occurred during the task force invasion of Japan. While this invasion was in progress a group of Japanese Kamakaze aircraft dove head on into the Franklin. The results were disastrous and when the final count was taken nearly 2,000 men lost their lives.

Among them was Aviation Machinist Mate 2/C Edward Lukoski.

Edward is survived by his sisters, Martha, Helen, Sophie and Jean; by his brothers Stanley and Frank.

We deem it an honor and privilege to name the new Post
